

Michele Tozzi, Senior Project Manager - Research and Innovation, UITP, Brussels, Belgium

Graduated in Civil Engineering and Ph.D. in Transportation Engineering at "Sapienza" University of Rome, he joined UITP in January 2013. His professional experience includes consulting activities at national and European level and the involvement in several EU-funded projects (FP7, H2020) mostly in the field of transportation planning and urban mobility. He is currently Manager of the EBSF_2, Galileo4Mobility, Autopilot, Sustainable Urban Mobility Indicators projects.

Specialties: His academic studies are focused on PT services analysis and management, traffic demand elasticity, commercial vehicle tour characteristics and constraints in congested urban areas.