

Jaspal Singh, Head of UITP India Regional Office, New Dehli

Jaspal Singh is an Urban Transport Expert and is currently working as Head of UITP India Office. He has been working with UITP since 2013. He has more than 10 years of experience in urban transport and management consultancy.

Prior to UITP, he setup a consultancy firm — Valoriser Consultants, which is engaged with companies in the areas of Bus Transport, Para-transit, Transport Planning and Intelligent Transport System. Previously, he was working as Deputy Manager with Delhi Integrated Multi-Modal Transit System Limited, a joint venture of Government of Delhi.

He is also subject matter expert on Taxi transport and has been widely quoted in National and International publications including the Strait Times. He has received several awards for his contribution in the field of public transport and social work.

Mr. Singh has received his Bachelor's degree in Commerce followed by a Master's in Business Administration specialized in International Business from University School of Management Studies, GGS Indraprastha University, Delhi.