

Biography Trainer

Philip Turner, European Expert Sustainable Mobility, UITP, Brussels, Belgium

Philip Turner is UITP's Sustainable Development Manager & European expert Sustainable Mobility and specialises in corporate social responsibility and sustainable development policy issues at the European and UN level. He joined UITP from Transport for London's (TfL) Sustainable Development Unit responsible for integrating sustainability issues into its corporate policies and programmes and reporting to stakeholders and senior management on TfL's corporate responsibility performance.

Previously he spent 8 years at the UK Environment Ministry and the Prime Ministers' Delivery Unit working on European and International negotiations and the UK Government's corporate social responsibility and strategy framework. He has a BSc and MSc in Management and Organisational Psychology from the University of London.