

Beat Müller, Director International Markets at CarPostal Switzerland, Geneva Area, Switzerland

Beat Müller is since May 2011 Director of International Markets at Swiss Postbus / CarPostal Suisse. Before he was Finance Director at TPG Public Transport of Geneva. He holds a master degree in Economics from University of Geneva. At Swiss Postbus he is in charge of the International Development of Swiss Postbus and is member of the board of management of Swiss Postbus in Berne.

He is also member of the Transport Economics Commission at UITP and the French UTP Strategy commission. He has presented a paper on 'the economic impact of PT' at the last UITP congress in Dubai and hosted a session on 'new funding ideas' at the UITP finance congress in HongKong.

He was born close to Zurich in Switzerland, but has lived for the last 23 years in Geneva where he is married and has two sons.