Caroline Cerfontaine. Senior Manager Combined Mobility, UITP

Caroline Cerfontaine holds a Master's degree from ILMH-Institut Libre Marie Haps in Brussels. She joined UITP in 2006 and manages different UITP working bodies (Transport & Urban Life Commission, Combined Mobility Platform). The Combined Mobility Platform looks at how to develop synergies between public transport and car-sharing, cycling, taxis etc and the Transport & Urban Life Commission aims at raising the profile of public transport policy towards other urban policies, mainly urban planning.
