

Danièle Abdelnour, Mission Accessibility, RATP, Paris, France

Graduate of the Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Beaux-Arts in Paris with a DPLG architecture degree, Danièle Abdelnour worked in an architecture firm on the construction of office buildings, housing and hotels in Paris for several years.

After receiving a CEAA (post-graduate diploma in architecture) in project management, operation set-up and programming, she joined RATP to work on projects such as the design of metro and RER train stations, tramway and bus stations, train maintenance workshops ...

Ms. Abdelnour is currently a member of the RATP Mission Accessibilité, which focus is on making the Paris public transport network easier for persons with reduced mobility.