

Biography Trainer

Paul Gwynn, Managing Director, Init Asia Pacific, Singapore

Paul has Degrees in Electronic Engineering and Maths plus a MBA from the University of Sheffield and a Masters in International Business Strategy from ICG. He has over 40 years of experience in developing rugged mobile technologies – in both military and civilian applications.

Paul is the Managing Director for INIT Asia-Pacific based in Singapore. INIT is the Germany-based leading supplier of integrated telematics and ticketing solutions for public transport worldwide. INIT decided to expand its global presence by establishing its latest subsidiary in Singapore in November 2012. Paul has been a member of the UITP for the last 12 years, for 4 years he was the chairman of the UITP

ITSI committee and active member of the UITP Policy Board. Paul is currently chairing the UITP Cyber Security working group who are currently developing UITP cyber strategy policies for members.