

Biography Trainer

Jerome Pourbaix, Director Regional Offices & Services, UITP, Brussels, Belgium

Jerome Pourbaix is Director of Regional Offices & Services at the International Association of Public Transport (UITP). He leads its international advocacy activities, currently focusing on the economic case for public transport and the future role of public transport in cities. Jerome also supervises UITP's urban transport data collection and analysis activities, notably the update of the Mobility in Cities Database. Previously he worked at the European Commission and the international city network Polis. He studied Sociology in Belgium and the United Kingdom.

Email: jerome.pourbaix@uitp.org