

Laurent Dauby, Director Rail Transport, UITP, Brussels, Belgium

Laurent Dauby studied political sciences in Belgium, Scotland and Germany. In 1996, he joined the UITP Rail Department.

From January 2006, he was appointed Senior manager for all rail-bound activities at UITP, including the Metro Division, and the “rail side” of the supply industry. In 2008, Laurent has been appointed Director of Knowledge and Membership Services Department – UITP’s department responsible for developing knowledge-related services for UITP members.

He was key instrumental to devising UITP’s “PTx2 strategy” aiming at no less than a global challenge to double market shares of public transport worldwide by 2015. Laurent is now Rail Director within the Knowledge and Membership Services Department.
