

Biography Trainer

Martin Dean, Managing Director - Bus Development at The Go-Ahead Group plc, London, UK

Martin Dean joined Go-Ahead in 2008 as Managing Director (Bus Development) for the Go-Ahead Group. In this role he leads and acts as a focus for all bus development and acquisitions activity in the Group and has been heavily involved in the Group's recent successful entry into the Singapore bus market. Martin also represents the Group in policy and strategy discussions with Government and other key stakeholders.

Previously, Martin held senior management roles in rail and bus with FirstGroup and National Express. He has also worked as a transport planning consultant for Atkins conducting public transport re-structuring studies in Greece, Poland, Lithuania, Kazakhstan and Saudi Arabia. He began his career with London Transport in 1985.