

Show the world you are a UITP member!

Use the special UITP member logo – your badge of membership!

Who can use the logo?

All members of UITP have the exclusive opportunity to use the UITP member logo (subject to them agreeing to comply with the conditions of usage).

Why should I use it?

This logo enables you to publicly demonstrate your membership of the only worldwide network of mobility stakeholders, showing that you are part of the international public transport community.

How can I get it?

You can obtain the logo on request by contacting our Communications department: communications@uitp.org

Conditions of usage

- The logo is the property of UITP.
- The UITP member logo can be used on the UITP member's stationery and website (with a link to www.uitp.org). The use of the logo on business cards is however restricted to UITP staff and Policy Board members.
- UITP can request to see samples of the usage of its member logo.
- UITP reserves the right to refuse requests to use its logo or to cancel permission to use the logo if it judges that the usage is inappropriate or infringes the conditions of usage, or if any payments are outstanding on the member's account.

- The UITP member logo is intended solely to demonstrate membership of UITP. It does not mean that UITP is an official partner or endorser of any events, projects, initiatives or products, and it should not be used in any way that could give this impression.
 - The UITP member logo may not be changed in any way.
 - Under no circumstances may the logo be re-drawn or modified.
 - The logo may not be boxed or placed in a background frame.
 - The logo may be reproduced in black, but only in black and white documents.
