The UITP MENA Conference is the region's premier annual event for public transport and urban mobility professionals. Each year, it brings together UITP members, transport authorities, operators, policymakers, industry partners, technology providers, consultants, and academia from across the Middle East and North Africa to connect, exchange knowledge, and shape the future of mobility.

As the region continues to experience rapid urban growth, digital transformation, and increasing commitments to sustainability, the conference serves as a unique hub for learning, networking, and collaboration. It provides a platform where members can share experiences, discuss common challenges, showcase innovative solutions, and build partnerships that advance public transport and sustainable mobility across the region.

Conference Programme

Key Themes :

- Seamless, Integrated & Passenger-Centered Mobility
- Technology & Transformation
- Sustainable, Accessible and Resilient Cities
- Investment, Financing Models
